No. 2:25-CV-0772-WBS-DMC-P

ORDER

and

FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

17 Plaintiff, a prisoner proceeding pro se, brings this civil rights action pursuant to 18 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

19 Plaintiff initiated this action with a pro se complaint. See ECF No. 1. The action
20 currently proceeds on Plaintiff's first amended complaint filed on June 30, 2025. See ECF No.
21 10. When Plaintiff initiated the action, he filed a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, 22 which the Court granted. See ECF No. 7. The Court also directed partial monthly fee payments.
23 See id. A further review of the docket reflects, however, that Plaintiff is not entitled to proceed in 24 forma pauperis in this action because he has had three or more prior actions dismissed for failure
25 to state a claim or as frivolous and the current action does not involve a claim of imminent
26 danger. The Court will, therefore, vacate the orders granting in forma pauperis status and 27 directing monthly fee payments, and recommend that Plaintiff's application for leave to proceed 28 in forma pauperis be denied.

1 The Prison Litigation Reform Act’s “three strikes” provision, found at 28 U.S.C.
2 § 1915(g), provides as follows:

3 In no event shall a prisoner bring a civil action . . . under this section if the 4 prisoner has, on three or more prior occasions, while incarcerated or 5 detained . . ., brought an action . . . in a court of the United States that was 6 dismissed on the ground that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury.

7 Id.

8 Thus, when a prisoner plaintiff has had three or more prior actions dismissed for one of the 9 reasons set forth in the statute, such “strikes” preclude the prisoner from proceeding in forma
10 pauperis unless the imminent danger exception applies. The alleged imminent danger must exist 11 at the time the complaint is filed. See Andrews v. Cervantes, 493 F.3d 1047, 1052 (9th Cir.
12 2007). A prisoner may meet the imminent danger requirement by alleging that prison officials
13 continue with a practice that has injured him or others similarly situated in the past, or that there
14 is a continuing effect resulting from such a practice. See Williams v. Paramo, 775 F.3d 1182, 15 1190 (9th Cir. 2014).

16 A review of the Court’s records reflects that Plaintiff has been found to have had 17 three or more prior “strikes.” See ECF Nos. 5 and 6 in Maldonado v. Stamer, et al., E. Dist. Cal.
18 case no. 2:23-cv-2274-KJM-KJN-P. Additionally, neither the original complaint nor the 19 operative first amended complaint in the instant action indicates that Plaintiff was under imminent
20 danger of serious physical injury at the time he initiated this action. See ECF Nos. 1 and 10.
21 Specifically, this action involves Plaintiff’s allegations of constitutional violations in the context
22 of a parole hearing. See id.

Based on the foregoing, the undersigned orders and recommends as follows:

1. It is ORDERED that the Court's order granting in forma pauperis status and directing monthly fee payments, ECF No. 7, is VACATED.

2. It is RECOMMENDED that Plaintiff's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, ECF No. 6, be DENIED and that Plaintiff be required to pay the $350.00 filing fee for this action, less any amounts already received by the Court as partial monthly payments.

These findings and recommendations are submitted to the United States District Judge assigned to the case, pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Within 14 days after being served with these findings and recommendations, any party may file written objections with the Court. Responses to objections shall be filed within 14 days after service of objections. Failure to file objections within the specified time may waive the right to appeal. See Martinez v. Ylst, 951 F.2d 1153 (9th Cir. 1991).
